

The Oregon Department of Agriculture, which regulates non-alcoholic hemp products, has specific testing requirements. It is NOT the responsibility of ODA or the OLCC to test CBD products.

If non-alcoholic, hemp-derived products containing CBD or other cannabinoids are compliant with ODA and OLCC rules they may be legal for sale by OLCC licensees and liquor store agents.

Licensees and liquor store agents must have test results on file for any hemp-derived products they sell that contain CBD or other cannabinoids. Non-compliant cannabinoid hemp products should be removed from your inventory.

Hemp products containing less than 0.5 mg THC can be sold to minors. Hemp products with more than 0.5 mg THC can only be sold to adults. Beginning July 1, 2022, THC is also limited in hemp products sold to adults (OAR 845-026-0400)

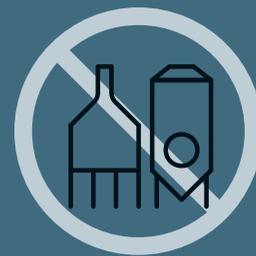

All products derived from marijuana, including CBD derived from marijuana, are strictly prohibited from being sold, served, or stored at a liquor-licensed premises.

Non-alcoholic compliant CBD products must: Be hemp-derived; Contain less than 0.3% THC; Not come from an OLCC marijuana licensee; And be tested according to the ODA rules.

Beginning July 1, hemp products containing artificially derived cannabinoids like delta-8-THC cannot be sold to consumers.

Based on federal law and regulations, alcohol manufacturers are prohibited by law from manufacturing alcoholic beverages which contain CBD.

Retailers and liquor store agents are NOT allowed to mix or sell alcoholic beverages containing CBD or hemp-derived cannabinoids.

Licensees and permittees must not permit any person to use, consume, ingest, or inhale any marijuana item on a licensed premises.